FINE WINES WITH CORAVIN™

At Bread Street Kitchen, we now offer fine wines by the glass using our brand new Coravin™ system. This cool sommelier gadget pierces through the cork of the finest bottle of wines to extract wine out without removing the cork. We are happy to get you a glass of the following fine wines without risking any quality decline. Ask your sommelier and have a glass!

11038 2013 Joseph Drouhin, Chassagne-Montrachet, Burgundy, France

Founded in 1880, this Burgundy producer needs no introduction with their stronghold in Côte de Beaune.

The wine has intense candied lemon aromas, balanced with subtle buttery oak. It is straightforward with nice texture and finesse.

150ml Glass at 58

750ml Bottle at 289

11097 2012 Allegrini, Amarone della Valpolicella Classico, Veneto, Italy

The Allegrini family has been producing wines for over 400 years and the Amarone is probably their most sought after wine. Juicy and robust, it is harmonious with depth showing a sense of overall finesse.

150ml Glass at 64

750ml Bottle at 320

11252 2012 Philippe Pacalet, Gevrey – Chambertin, Burgundy, France

With mentors like Jules Chauvet and Marcel Lapierre, Philippe is a vintner with tremendous good upbringing in the world of wine.

He is one of the first few natural wine producers in France and also handles everything in the vineyards from pruning to bottling.

This wine is very charming with hints of allspice and cinnamon. Elegant and weightless on the palate.

150ml Glass at 60

750ml Bottle at 299

11104 2011 Bodegas Roda, Roda Reserva, Rioja, Spain

A household name, this producer has been the pioneer in modern winemaking in Rioja. Excelling in Tempranillo, this wine has great complexity and silky smooth texture. Well balanced with hints of cocoa and sweet spices to a fresh fruity finish.
