White Wine with the Coravin...

Cervaro della Sala, Castello della Sala,
Marchesi Antinori , 2015 Umbria 24.00 per glass 125ml ****

The wine, a light straw yellow with brief greenish highlights, expresses rich, complex, and intense aromas. The notes of citrus fruit, pears, and acacia flowers are in perfect balance with the sweet and spicy notes of vanilla. The palate is supple but vibrant, elegant and well structured, characterized by the classic mineral sensations and by the light notes of hazelnut butter.

Vitovska, Paolo Vodopivec, 2010 Friuli-Venezia Giulia 18.00 per glass 125ml ****

Vitovska is the queen of the Carso, rocky terrain and plots of red soil respectfully cultivated by people who love nature. Natural winemaking, which means no physicochemical stabilizers are used, no preservatives or enzymes are added. The wine is bottled without any filtration. This is the only wine for this vintage. On September 22nd the grapes are harvested and then left to macerate in amphorae for six months on the skins, releasing their particular trait. Fining in oak wood takes two years.

Barolo Riserva, Borgogno, 2006
Piedmont, 20.00 per glass 125ml ****

The name Borgogno has always been linked to one of the oldest wine producing houses in Langhe and Piemont. It all began in 1761 when Bartolomeo Borgogno established the cellar. In the years that followed, the stories of the company and our country often intertwined. In 1861, for instance, when the Unity of Italy came about, the Barolo di Borgogno was the wine chosen to accompany the celebration lunch of Italy's official unity.

The 2006 Barolo Riserva is also impressive with a streamlined and elegant feel enhanced by pretty accents of dried flower, tar, spice, cassis and black pepper.

Saffredi, Fattoria le Pupille, 2009
Tuscany 25.00 per glass 125ml ****

The Saffredi 2009 of Fattoria le Pupille Estates shows an impenetrable ruby red color, with crimson reflections, characterizing this important wine. The majestic body of this Maremma Toscana is highlighted already by its density in the glass. The wine reveals scents of red fruits, blending with the spicy aromas of clove, cinnamon and a light fragrance of vanilla. On the palate, the round and velvety body wraps up all senses and creating a great balance with subtle tannins. The long persistence of the Fattoria le Pupille Saffredi allows to fully relish the aromatic complexity upon which the spices predominate.

Sweet wine with Coravin...

Moscato Rosa, 'Praepositus', Abbazia di Novacella, 2014
Trentino- Alto Adige, 18.00 per glass 125ml ****

Grown in vineyard with a south and southeastern exposure in the Cornaiano area of the comune of Appiano at approximately 350 metres above sea level, the Moscato Rosa grapes for this gorgeous dessert wine are picked at the end of October. Fermented in stainless steel at a controlled temperature, only natural yeasts are used, and the wine is kept in stainless steel until bottling, and then undergoes 8 months of bottle refinement.

Slightly tannic and beautifully fresh, the Moscato Rosa displays fragrant aromas of wild strawberries, sweet, warm spices and floral notes of honeysuckle and dried flowers. A gorgeous treat.
