Choose any as a base of your Martini or Gimlet as well as traditional G&T
Tonic by your choice is included in price

Pick’Tonic

Think about how you like your G&T. If you fancy the bitter taste, choose more classic tonics with higher bitterness. If you usually squeeze few slices of lime to your drink, citrusy forward tonics are the right choice.

Always remember:
Any gin goes with any tonic,
so be creative and try new combinations.

East Imperial – Singapore Gentle carbonation with lower sugar Burma tonic - higher on bitterness Highest level of quinine allowed, Classic style tonic. Old World tonic - higher on bitterness Unconventional revival of recipe from 1903. Lowest carbonation & sugar Yuzu tonic - citrusy Goes well with dry and citrus forward gins Grapefruit tonic – fresh citrus / pomelo Made with grapefruit and pomelo.

J. Gasco – Italy Medium carbonation with soft aroma Indian tonic – light bitterness Round flavour with bitter and sweet outline and fine carbonation. London Essence – UK Light and complex, lower on sugar Grapefruit & Rosemary – higher on bitterness Good bitterness with less sugar. Ideal for London dry gins with herbal notes Bitter orange & Elderflower – light bitterness Sweeter notes go well with any Floral style of gin
